MBTA/Mass Transit

- Take the Green Line to Copley Square T stop, or take the Orange Line to Back Bay T stop and then walk down Dartmouth Street until you reach the library entrance on Dartmouth Street opposite Copley Square park.
- The BPL is also accessible by the #9, #10, #39, #55 buses.

Driving Directions

From the North or South

From I-93, take the Storrow Drive exit. Take Copley Square exit off of Storrow Drive. The exit dead-ends at a signal light. The cross street is Beacon. Take a right on Beacon Street. While on Beacon Street, you will cross Berkeley, Clarendon, and Dartmouth Streets. The next street is Exeter. Take a left onto Exeter (it is a one-way street). While on Exeter, you will cross Marlborough Street, Commonwealth Avenue, and Newbury Street. The next cross street is Boylston. The Library is on the corner of Exeter and Boylston Streets.

From the West

Come all the way into the city on the Mass Pike (I-90). Take the Copley Square exit (the sign will read: Prudential Center, Copley Square). The exit road will split, follow the Copley Square (right) lane. You will exit the tunnel onto Stuart Street. You will be on the right hand side of the street. Move to the lane furthest left. Take the left at the next light, Dartmouth Street (approximately 500 feet from the tunnel exit). The Library is on the left of Dartmouth Street, after the next light (approximately 500 feet).

Parking

- Metered street parking is available around the area.
- There is also a parking garage located at 100 Clarendon Street. (If you are a consumer and you wish to receive reimbursement for parking, you must park at the garage at 100 Clarendon.)
